The purpose of the “Honor Text” approach is to allow for the wide dissemination of information, while providing financial support for continued policy research and dissemination. The following are the “honor text” guidelines:

- If you are a student or other researcher and are using one copy of this material for personal research, you are not requested to provide compensation.
- If you have established a web site or web page listing information resources for educators, you may freely link to this site or any individual document on this site and are not requested to provide compensation.
- If you are a faculty member, professional development coordinator, or the like and have assigned material on this site as readings for your students (whether provided in hard copy or linked to as an online component of course resources), you are requested to provide compensation for such use. The standard rate for the reproduction of copyrighted materials for courses is $.10/page/student. If you are using substantial sections, please make contact to arrange for discounts.
- If you are a school or a district and have used these materials for planning and/or policy development, you are requested to provide compensation in a manner that reflects the perceived value.
- For all other uses or further information, please e-mail us at info@responsiblenetizen.org.
